COLLECTION POLICY

Our Payment Terms are “Net 30 Days”. (Please refer to the Jackson Systems’ website or catalog for more details). For your convenience, 40 days after the date of your invoice, you will receive a statement showing your past due balance.

At 55 days, you will receive a courtesy phone call to inquire about payment status. If a commitment for payment is made your account will remain open. If a commitment is not made or met, your account will be put on credit hold and no further orders will be filled.

At 62 days, finance charges will be added. An invoice will be sent out reflecting these finance charges.

At 70 days, a demand letter will be sent stating that payment must be received within 15 days or your account will be turned over to our collection agency. Finance charges and collection fees will be included. All correspondence must then be between your company and the collection agency.

It is important to us that all our customers understand our Payment Terms and Collection Policy. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us. We truly appreciate your business and look forward to serving you for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Eileen E. Jackson
